

Get Living London hosts free fireworks evening in East Village, E20

- Get Living London offering free entry to their third annual firework event
 - Firework evening in East Village's Victory Park
 - Taking place on Friday 4th November, 2016

Following the success of last year's remarkable event, Get Living London is hosting another free firework display in Victory Park, East Village - the former Athletes' Village of the London 2012 Games.

Visitors to East Village will be able to enjoy a selection of fireworks choreographed artistically to a mix of contemporary music, by Titanium Fireworks, who performed at the opening and closing ceremonies of the 2012 Olympics. In addition there will be an interactive light installation from Illuminarium, both promising to be memorable viewing experiences. Food and drink will be available to buy on the evening from East Village retailers; including Signorelli, Darkhorse, Mamlan, RedYellowBlue, Fish House, Santi, La Gelatiera, Neighbourhood (more may follow with additional stores hosting stalls and serving street food on site).

Firework enthusiasts should visit the website www.ticketsource.co.uk/e20fireworks for free tickets to the event this November. Tickets will be publically available from Thursday 6th October. Ticket holders will be provided with an e-ticket which must be redeemed for an event wristband at the Get Living London Welcome Office (5 Celebration Avenue, E20 1DB), in order to gain entry to the event.

The fireworks evening is part of Get Living London's programme of free annual event and follows their successful summertime events earlier this year including the E20 Sports Day, 'A Very British Sunday' Summer Fair and the pop-up outdoor Nomad Cinema.
